The Republic.

HOUSEHOLD CORNER

boat got his New Year's turkey free. The lower deck of a passenger steamer that passed was louded with crate after crate of big. live gobbiers

Through the carelesaness of a deck hand, one of the crases fell off the pile, broke and liberated half a dozen birds The turkeys flew in every direction, but quick work on the part of steamboatmen ping twenty-pounder, which poised on the rail at the stern of the boat and, just as a passenger was about to grab him, emitted a loud "Gobble-gobble-gobble" Mr. Turk didn't fly long, for the ferry-wind blew him up the river. A deck hand was standing by the pliothouse, and as the turkey swooped by him he made a quick grab and caught Mr. Gobbler by dragged the deck hand overboard, but he held on manfully, and soon had the big bird so trussed up that there was no doubt of his safety. Then he waved his hand deristively at the steamer, on the stern of which an trate mate was shaking on fists. The deck hand who caught the gobbler presented it to a passenger on the ferryboar.

her come, they pass, with snow-soft feet. And deathless youth filumes their eyes: tilke to them are chaff and wheat, Althe the footish and the wise. ey tetrg the wound, they being the balm,

Then light our amilios, they dry our tears; Careinss of death or life, the calm Servants of time, the patient years.

Idendue the excetness through the sir. ferres all the past etill fragrant fair. Though hopes may fall and bearts may break and fruitless all the striving be, time golden gift is left to make n'e Miss, consuling memory.

Hall and farewell farewell and hall! The gring and the coming guest, Welcome to daybreak's shining sail. As to the night beyond the west! The years may come, the years may go, And bring the sad or merry most; Merry or sad, one thing we know. That life is good, ah, life to good!

she put me at the door-white I for trouble. the still, I see my life. If My life was double.

PROFESSIONAL CORPSE EXPOSES TRICK OF BEING BURIED ALIVE FOR A WEEK

George Hausman, Who Stole Beefsteak - to Save Himself From Starvation When Out of Work, Describes Impressions While Confined in Coffin-Took Imaginary Trip to Old World to Fight Off Hysterics.

George Hausman, who allowed himself to be buried alive for a week time, explains by diagram how air was admitted to his coffin through a tube, and how food, beer, newspapers and cigarettes were lowered down for his nourishment and amusement while he was supposed to be in hypnotic state.

ted by Court in Drainage

Matter Is Too Short.

EACH SIDE TO HAVE 4 HOURS.

Yet on Hand for Hearing-

Hadley Will Arrive in Washington To-Day.

to argue the now celebrated drainage-ment, and four hours have been allotted to each side. This is one day of the court's time for each State. However, the time was allotted without request from doubtedly by asked by the attorneys of Illinois's representatives did not know until to-night that the argument was limited to four hours a side, and both Mr.

Todd and General Hamim expressed sur-

If more time is desired, it probably will be granted, since such a request from a

MAY GRANT DELAY

The Hilmois attorneys to night expressed water supply of St. Louis, or damage the new before the Empreme Court, this point

The livelless interest is being taken in

WOULD SAVE TIME

Attorney General Hadley will arrive in Washington to-morrow to take charge in ase. Associated with him will be Sam R

Jeffries and E. C. Crow, former Assistant

Attorney General, and Attorney General

Anchors Off Dominican Town and Threatens Bombardment.

Puerto Plate, San Deminge, Dec. 11-

Independencia has remained faithful to the cause of President Morales and has delivered ammunition, money and forces to off Puerto Plata, and her commander, Cap-person of Misseuri's interests in the cural decision might then be expected.

Missourt, respectively.

SPECTAL BY CAPILE.

General Rodrigues.

either or both States.

State is seldem dented able request for more time.

in favor of their State.

is treated at great length.

fits increstigation either side, and an extension will unrived.

prise.

The Republic Bureau, Wyart Building, 18th and F Streets.

For the last six months, George Hausman of No. 1462 Hodisment avenue, who is now an inmate of the city jatl, was buried alive at least once a week, and made a living on a professional faster. made a living as a professional faster. The reason he is now deprived of his liberty is that he stole a beefsteak when he was on the verge of starvation, after having really fasted for forty-eight hours.

"There is a whole lot of difference," said yesterday, as he peered through the tiny wicket at the jall, "between fasting in a coffin with thousands of people daily looking at you, and doing the same stunt on the wintry streets, with no piece to sleep, and not getting a cent for your

"After being buried alive for nine days, in a hypnotic trance. I was always a little said in my limis when I therged from the casket, but I was never hungry and I managed to sleep quite comfortably

"I was born at St. Charles Mo twenty-nine years ago, and learned the car-The most of the time I had charge of the opera-house there, and sometimes I drove a teem. One day last June there-cam to the town of St. Charles a man who had this buried-nilve feature with him. I was interested in it. I knew there had to be some sort of a trick about it, for f conducted on the dead level. "So I paid my dime to see the temporary corpse, and just watched. I hung on hour after hour. I started in at noon, and at 12 o'clock that might I was still on duty watching the man in the casket. I had seen the grave dug seven feet down in the earth, had seen the box placed indie it, had seen the professor make the strange motions with his hands when he produced the alleged hypnotic spell, and had then seen the lid of the coffin screwed on and the man lowered into the grave.

I watched the diggers throw the dirt on top of the box and then peered down brough the tube into the coffin and saw the man was still there. He appeared to be fixed all tight enough and I could not see how he could live. But I kept on watching and finally the professor took one aside and told me he would put me wise to the secret of I would say noth-

AKUS RIGITIAR CORPSES PLACE. 'In fact, the more I thought of it the more interested in the scheme I became. I was not working and it looked to me the depriving an infant of gumdrops. So and Chicago, but to the entire country, when the regular corpse took sick and the court probably will honor any reasonuse ferred temperarily to retire from active business I took his place. I took to from the start and was a success. The confidence that the Judges of the highcoult was the man hired me then and t there to go with him and act the part as they see it, and hand down a decision of the corpor. and when the Jefferson Club carnical was neld at liandlan's Park we secured the of the drainage canal does not impair the privilege of making an exhibit. According to the agreement, we had to give the city in any way. dub fifty per cent of the gross receipts. In the LSO pages of printed argument, and I was to get one-third of the remaining fifty per cent. Well, they lowered me late the grave after the "professor" had hypnotized me, and the announcement was the case by Government efficials, more made that for nine days I was to remain particularly from a scientific standpoint. burted. The professor took especial care Sie executedy to see that I had nothing no was for me to live under the conditions save in a state of suspended animation. It was my first long stay. that in spote of this fact, it was the awfulbut furture to star there in one position that could be imagined. I lay on one side with one eye closed and the one next the pillow open. A tiny electric light nurned near my face. Well at first I thought of fereign lands and concluded o take a trip arress the ocean in fancy. and I went through all the details of purchasing my railroad ticket, riding on the was to New York priting pussedents. GUNBOAT STANDS BY MORALES having the steamer ticket, making the verage, etc. I can the great waves calling over the bosom of the ecesn, heard the comble and crash of the machinery, listened to the conversation of my fellow pasted me my I looked at least propers and tried to imprime myself a triffe searick. I knew I would have to stay there a forg time, on I made the > trip string out. IMAGINARY TOUR.

raise of having pomper and a . I visited Landon and one to frequent sait into well together while dry.

In a piece of land a little larger about among the lakes and last rained about among the lakes and last rained little ord; with a castles, nandered groups the lake, whose "I visited Landen and see the formula tower. I went over to Ireland and rambled about among the isles and lef ruined Lain Catrain, hand emanded the surrender castles, wandered among the Bills whose of the town to the legitimate Government Rob Ray, as a wood to help forthered President Morales within twenty-four and alpoured for a relies among the Manamen on the lole of the country otherwise he will tombard the town the Manamen on the lole of the country otherwise he will tombard the town of which I had road. I always admired to the Manus Constituted States orusers will receive the neuron and children on board and afferd them every protection.

PASTOR DEPARTS

Ecclesiastical Council Decides That Immanuel Church Should Reinstate A. W. Grav.

REV. GOFF'S TERM EXPIRES.

Women Prominent Among Members Who Protested Against Expulsion of Gray, Who Is Vindicated.

Following the retirement of the Reverend E. M. Goff from the pastorate of Immanuel Congregational Church, his term of office having expired, it was an restorday that the Breleslastical Council of the Congregational churches of R. Louis has decided that A. W. Gray, the treasurer of Immanuel Church, who was expelled, should be reinstated.

Mr. Coff. as paster, was said to have been identified with the faction responsible for the expulsion of Mr. Gray.

The Reverend Doctor William M. Jones, pastor of Hyde Park Congregations Church, who was moderator of the council, stated last night that the action of the council meant that Mr. Gray must be reinstated or the standing of Immanuel 'hurch would be jeopardized in the gen-

Action by the council was brought about by a remonstrance signed by thirty-odd nembers of Immanuel Congregation, many of the signers being ladies, led by Mrs. George C. Hedgeock, superintendent of the primary department.

The Reverend William Smith acted as eribe of the council, of which Miss Mary P. Hancock was clerk. Resolutions, which were unanimously adopted, were presented by a committee composed of the Revere J. B. Toomay of Fountain Park Church; the Reverend H. M. Evans of Compton Hill Church and Mr. B. W. Whitteme of Old Orchard Church, as follows: "After the most patient, thorough and prayerful examination which they have been able to give to the matter, submitted to them for action, the council came to the following result:

"Recognizing the fact that the church acted within the letter of its own constitution in expelling from membership Mr. W. Gray, yet, inasmuch; "The church did not proceed according to Matthews xvii; 15-17, which is in congregation mage, a recognized principle of hurch discipline; and, "It did not file specific charges against Illinois Attorneys Say Time Allot Mr. A. W. Gray; and, "It proceeded contrary to the advice of the City Missionary Society, and its own pastor, and was unnecessarily hasty in its action in expelling Mr. A. W. Gray from its fellowship; therefore, by it. "Resolved, That it is the sense of this council that the action of immanuel hurch was irregular, and not in harmony with congregational usage, and we, Missouri's Representatives Not therefore, resumend that the church no its pro-tudings into Congregational custom." THE REMONSTRANCE. Mr. Gray stated that the Reverend Mr. Goff had sought to discredit and disgrace him, and that the proceedings had been irregular in every way. As a result, the remonstrance, signed by many members Washington, Dec. 31.-H. J. Hamlin, of the church, was submitted, and was the formerly Attorney General of Illinois, and basis upon which the Ecclesiastical Coun-Assistant Attorney General Felix Streyck- cil vindicated Mr. Gray. The text of the remenstrance was as follows: man of Springfield and James R Todd of Chicago, representing the Drainage Canal of this Immanuel Church, believe the time has Commission, arrived in Washington to-day come for us to place ourselves on record as protesting against the course of procedure of canal case before the Supreme Court, Miscial meetings and binding or attempting to bind > of the lest members from our fold. We protest against the action taken to place the building fund in the hands of a special committee when the church constitution pro vides that the church treasurer shall handle all the funds of the church.

ene to disrupt our organization, and drive many our church treasurer from office by filegally night. declaring the office vacant and electing an-

We deplore the autton taken at a special meeting, where one of the dearns of this coest of wooden Indians. Tomahawk in dead. A brother who has been unjustly church moved a resolution attacking the in- hand, he shows the others just how the imprisoned is about to kill humalif when tegrity and character of the effices of this burch for tempostrating against the course of ur paster. Such action was taken on the exinice of one man, the pastor, against the state. | Duten, church record.

In view of the immense importance of ich, whereby dur church tressurer was roted agl, by name. His imitation of some music tis new.

The Wangloodic Quartet is be rule of and that was to be the last coupled on the church without the due process of half "artistes" is but sque of the best and new total pole tions. All are capable to be just of the body bonds of matrithe drainage case, not only to St. Louis Descripts and without giving him a change to know with what wrongs he was charged. We saw that charming swing ensemble singers. Harris and Harris appear in a believe that such action was charged. We believe that such action was taken in this in "The Earl and the Girl," The accomnamed because if written therees had non-panying song. A Girl From My Own connectants; Ward and Raymond, dancers, a wise tip given to the prospective bride est tribunal in the land will see the case further assert that true Congregationalism gives Hams was never so that the wears Motion pictures show to every accused person all rights of true guar- big that and alturing red gown she wears. Motion pictures show to the every accused person all rights of true guar-The main point of the eral argument. as in the briefs, will be that the output Immunoel Church is expected to take early action regarding the findings of the council and also select a new paster.

CHORUS GIRLS STRIKE TO-DAY.

From $15 to $25 a Week.

Now York, Dec. II. The Central Feder-ted Union, composed of delegates of all the geological survey having made an abstract of the tengthy brief to be used in General Hamilto to-night stated that the principal reason for wanting more time is that the attorneys will thus be able to save the court much work in reading the briefs and the law cited, and an earlier of co-operation from the members of Opphestra and Stage Mechanics failed

NEW YORK PRINTERS STRIKE.

Largest Single Body of Job Typos Decide on Walkout.

New York, Dec. II.—Typographical Un-ion No. 8 of New York, the largest ag-gregation of wage-earling printers in the world, to-day formally declared a strike world, to-day formally declared a sirke in all the book and job printing offices within its jurisdiction, and to-mercon not a line of type will be set or east by a union man in any of the great printing establishments unless the employers shall agree to make sight hours the length of the work day and the present scale of wages paid for a nine-hour day. lopyright, 196 to The Dominican guntout same of Veterane Meretre.

The extremit annual reception by mem-ers of Admiral Porter Camp. No. 6. Sons of Vetrans, U. S. A., was beid at Eck-General Rodriguez.

The Independencia has now anchored of Puerto Plata, and her commander. Caplain Catrain, hand emanded the surrender out and the new year ushered in.

Priends of Phil Dwyer, former commit-ceman from the Twenty-sixth Ward, pre-sented to him a gold watch and chain and a diamond act charm facturday even-ing. Mrs. Dwyer received a diamend breastpin. Supper was served.

TREASURER CLEARED; TWO OF THE ATTRACTIVE WOMEN IN THIS WEEK'S PLAY BILLS

JANE OAKER. Who plays Mrs. Jodwin, in "The Pit."

HATTIE WILLIAMS, As Hone, the rollicking girl.

MUSIC COMEDY AT OLYMPIC: "MONNA VANNA" BEGINS TO-DAY

"The Rollicking Girl" is a little of , his nephew's fortune and makes up his everything. The last Olympic audience of mind to possess it by murdering the boy. 1905 welcomed this happy newcomer last night.

Sam Bernard, than whom no better comedian mangles English to amuse, inside of a diamond ring which he presents. The police theory of the case is that successward. But "The Rollicking Girl." without obvious pretense, is original, witty leaving his home until he can claim th and finely written. Clever verses fit the songs. The music fits the lyrics and all well. Who but Sydney Resenfeld would suddenly turn out such a surprise? Who but Ben Teal could devise these stunning chorus effects?

Hattle Williams's buoyant humor efferresces as the girl in the case. Ilona in her name. Hona leaves her betrothed to go on the stage. She is "discovered" by a Viennese wigmaker in the person of Sam Bernard. She becomes prima denna of the Theater Royal, reigns a favorite for a time, is dismissed through the wiles of a rival singer, and at last goes home We project against the attempt to remove theater when a stranger wins fame in a dangers that beset a young woman wise i

Sam Bernard, with his three chosen Clara Joel plays the heroine When licutenants sings "Indians on Broadway" she attempts to return home false friends in a manner to bring smiles to the wood | chloroform her, and announce that she is ditty should be rendered. He talks in En- the girl makes her escape and rapears at glish-Bernard English-German and plain the prisen in time to save his life

ments of seven officers of this church. We de | Vinie Daly cances in all steps as Lend, mand that such resolution be stricken from the wife to Schmaftz, the wig maker. Willard "On the Fall Eliver Line" is the title of the brimming cup of happiness of P. E. Sims amuses immensely as a sort of the opening buriesque at the Gaysty. It is shevens, Is years old, redding at No. 142 We vig musty protest against the recent ac shadowy resurrection of Dan Daly. Pen- in Just nautical entravaganza. The must ther assert that true Congregations; some liams was never so fair to see as in that picte the clie.

tratics darks innovation, but certain it is pertainers and both are favorites at this Union Singers Will Demand Raise that the Sunday afternoon audience of theater.

> The performance was repeated at night, sationalists; Two Ashtons, juggless, Hove and this afternion will be seen again. Miss and Jeanette singers and dancers; Models conker be will the leading lady. On Wedner- and Jers, and Brooks Brothers. day afternoon there is to be a special matince for a trial revival of "Trilby." If this famous old comedy of the Latin Quarter. It was a happy thought that made biplays to a large audience on that day it rector Heinemann put on "Der Stateis likely that Mr. Cavanaugh will offer it strompeter" at the Odeon last night to secure a piedge later in the week. Certain it is that "Trilling to the new year, Manusteadt's face, members of its the by was once a fine enterrainment. Wheth- full of good music and fun galore, is just er it belongs to the class that falls quickly the kind of preliminary to a New Year's from popularity is a matter to be deter- celebration. Heinemann himself played mined Wednesday. Keitar's latest wonder. "The Witch, the treats like one of his sugar tarts. The Soller and the Enchanted Monkey," is a young woman tires of the sweetness of the unique illustonary sketch in which some which crime he plans to commit during a party which he is to give, it being the night before Christmas.

The uncle, a miserly old man, covets

The scheming uncle rubs poison on the shares the stage with Hattle Williams. to Harry. The polson fails to take effect | Connors was met at the staircase by an-Vinic Daly and Willard Sims. Such a and the uncle persuades "Brute" Baily, a other friend of Mrs. Dorn, who was jealblood. Harry, overhearing a portion of in a fight. Mrs. Dorn is being held in the plot, becomes "A Runaway Boy." fortune his father has left him.

The last act of the play shows a country scene. Again it is Christmas time, and the ground is white with snow. Harry is now of age, and is centing to claim his own. "Brute" Balley is still on his trail, and as he almost reaches the little church wherein his cousin is about to be mar ried, knocks the youngster senseless, and, thinking he has killed him, reports him to the uncle as dead. But Harry outwits them all, triumphs over his enemies comes into his fortune and sees the schen ing uncle put in an insane asylum, to the man who is waiting for her. Around Havlin's. It is a marked change from this episode is woven many of the funny | Barney Gilmore's quiet little Irish comed; incidents that happen in the world of the of last week. The new piece outlines the fallured from home by cyll associates.

preferred they could have been dispracen. We Town," of course, in new, Hattie Will- and Inde and Bosel, German jesters, com-

Motion pictures show the Fitzsimment

the Century will exactly like the "two place. In their elever limb character ca-yesterday fixed "The Pit" and its big The vandeville bill it made up of acts by mob sever.

[Blackford and Hunter, humorous convetthe part of August Mampe, A Jovial confectioner, with a young wife, fare and longs for more exciting events.

Corpse of John Conners Discovered Near Kate Dorn's Apartments in East St. Louis.

STAB WOUND IN HIS HEAD.

Police Think He Perished of Loss of Blood and Exposure-Woman Held Pending Search for Assailant.

Lying face down beneath a small woodn staircase leading to a group of onestory frame tenements, with his topcost clasped between his arms in the shape of a pillow, John Conners was found cold n death yesterday morning.

He had been stabbed on the head and the loss of blood, together with the exposure, caused death. The stabbing occurred at the foot of the staircase which leads to an apartment occupied by Mrs. Kate Dorn, at No. 11 Brown Row, East St. Louis.

The tenement lies between the railroad yards and Collinsville avenue, near Pennsylvania avenue. Connors and Mrs. Dorn had been friends. She is under arrest, but declares to the police that she knew nothing of the assault.

Connors was 25 years old, and was employed as an ice wagon driver by O. C. Davis, with whom he lived at No. 1526 Gaty avenue, East St. Louis, Mrs. Dorn is the wife of a Belleville saloon and boardinghouse keeper. She has lived in East St. Louis for several years and was employed in an East St. Louis restaurant. The assault on Connors to believed to have occurred between is and II o'clock, Saturday night. He was seen in a saloon on Collinsville avenue shortly before 10 p. m. According to admissions which Mrs. Dorn made to Chief Purdy yesterday afternoon, someone, believed to be Con-nors, knocked on her door and she says that she refused to open ft.

She told Chief Purdy that she was alone and was afraid. She also stated that she heard a slight scuffle, but paid no attention to it. In going to work yesterday morning she walked down the statrones under which Connors lay in a good of blood, but she did not notice him. 2000 Lettle Choin, a neighbor, discovered the body and notified the police.

The corpse was taken to the Di mussard undertaking establishment, The knife with which the stabbing was done use found a few feet from Comors' body, It is a large three-bladed knife, and had een recently sharpened.

clare that the knife was not his. The in-jury consisted of a long stash on the right side of Conners's bend, and the knife lifted the scalp for about two inches. The the hope that she will give the police some information concerning the identity of such

It is charged by neighbors of Mrs. Dorn. that she has had two quarrels with Connors at different times. Mrs. Dern de nies both occurrences, and declares that they are stories made up by envious neigh-

Conners leaves a mother, at No. 311 St. Louis avenue, and two sisters. The inquest will be held at the undertaking

EAST SIDE'S LAST

P. E. Stevens and Miss Gertrude Fletcher Are Married at Residence of Deputy Clerk Caugh-

But one thing was wanting to complete

North Vandeventer avenue, St. Louis, and Miss Gertrude Fletcher, 3, of Newtonville, mony, in the old year, in East St. Louis, And this was granted to them, through group by the accommodating marriage itcense clerk of East St. Louis, as long ago as last Thursday, when Stevens confided his ambition to that official The Century and Mr. Cavanaugh are getting the Sunday Matinee habit. One is standard in a two-act farce entitled for that the only suggestion be entitled for that the only suggestion be could of the distinguished actors who are thus bent to Jess and Lee Madden was the couple call on him at his residence New Year's Eve at the o'clock, that being his rettring hour.

Stevens was properly grateful for the tip and has mant promptly at 19 o'clock, he and his prospective bride were on hand at the clerk's residence, No. 541 Fetchs wince.

lin a trice the necessary document was made out and the knot tied there and then he the Research R. D. Woodley patter of the Centenery M. E. Church, East St Louise So pleased was the marriage license derk at the near little "coup" which had been pulses off that he offered to the wedded chaple as a wedding and New Year's gift all gold piece. They refused in with thanks however, and Mr. Caughlan added it to the officiating minister's six or eight persons are wafted about the size as if they were spirits. This, mind you, with two persons from the addence on the stage to see it all at close range. Herr Valudon is again Kellar's assistant. The Simila Scance, the dying enigma, the Princess Karmac and the famous hypnotic seems are other features of the excellent magician's entertainment at the Grand Opera House.

CHILD TRAVELS 8454 MILES

Little Swedish Girl Near End of Journey to San Francisco.

Mome, Bertha Kalich will begin her engagement at the Garrick this afternoon in Maurice Maeterlinek's play "Menna Varma."

Toung Joseph Santley came to the imperiant follows the stage in "A Runaway Boy. Harry Reynoldz, the part played by Santley, has lost his father and mother, and his uncle is to held his fortune until be reaches his assentently year, the youth being away at a boarding school.

The uncle, a miterity old man, covers